Hello,

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us!

We know that this must be a hard time, as you choose what is best for you and your child.

We may not know your whole journey, but please know that you are loved and that whatever you are feeling we respect and admire your strength.

The Lord is my strength and shield. I trust him with all my heart. He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy. I burst out in songs of thanksgiving.

-Psalms 28:7

Thank you for choosing life and considering adoption a path for your child. If you decide on adoption, please know that we promise to love and nurture your child in all stages of life. One of our priorities will be to show your child the way of the Lord while providing a safe and loving home.

My husband Jorge and I, have been together for 20 years, married 15 years. We got married in November of 2006. We met when I was still in college; Jorge has just recently graduated from college with a degree in Mathematics. His first job after graduating was as a math tutor for engineering students at the college. I was one of those engineering students. We became friends and with time our relationship would grow and flourish.

We both come from humble families. I was born and raised in Florida, my mother is from Costa Rica and my father is from Chile. Jorge was born in Nicaragua but came to Florida at the age of 1 with his parents and older brother.

Jorge and I live a simple yet fulfilled lives. We both are hard workers but in our free time we love to travel and explore new places. We truly enjoy each other's company. We have had our ups and downs throughout our marriage. One of them was when I got pregnant but lost her when I was 5 months pregnant. Yes, it was very dark and difficult, but our faith was stronger, and we chose to trust the Lord's plan. As we have continued to pray, the Lord has put in our hearts to growing our family through adoption. We have chosen to follow what is in our hearts.

Jorge and I have so much love to give.

We hope that we get to share our love...if you choose us.

Grateful Hearts,

Jorge & Sara
