HAVING FUN WHILE ON A CAMPING TRIP!

BEACH DAY IN FLORIDA!

CHRISTMAS MORNING

As you consider adoption for yourself and your baby, we recognize the weight of your decision and the emotions that are involved. Being parents of both biological and adopted children, we see the incredible amount of strength and courage you have, regardless of what decision you come to. If you choose to place your child in our family, we want to assure you that your child will be cherished, loved, and joyously welcomed into our family. You also, as a birth parent would become part of our forever family and we would be proud and honored to welcome you into it!

We have struggled with infertility and walked through six miscarriages together. We always desired a big family and as we healed from our losses, our shared love for children and a desire to grow our family brought us to the path of adoption. Adoption was never our backup plan or replacement for biological children - we believe that the gift of adoption has allowed us to grow our family in a special way and that each of our children's lives and stories are as unique as they are!

We love each of our children equally, regardless of how they came into our family and love the strong bond our children have with one another as siblings. Thank you for getting to know us better through our profile.

our STORY

OUR WEDDING DAY

We met at college, initially connecting through mutual friends and playing intramurals together. Micah noticed Achelle right away and thought she was cute and sweet. Achelle was attracted to Micah's lighthearted and goofy personality. We married in July of 2013 and settled down in Micah's hometown in Wisconsin to be near family. Over the past twelve years of marriage, we've learned to lean on one another and grow in both the good and hard times. After struggles with infertility and six miscarriages, our shared love for children and a desire to grow our family ultimately led us to the path of adoption.

We believe life is best lived together in the everyday - whether it be doing dishes, yard work, playing with the kids, or relaxing together on a family vacation. Our goal each day is to cherish the small things and enjoy each moment we are given with each other. We strive to create a home that is full of love, respect, and laughter.

FAITH

Our hope in Jesus is what we center our lives on. We believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins and that in Him we are forgiven. We are active members of our local church, which feels like an extension of our family. We are blessed to be part of such a loving and encouraging community. Several families at our church have adopted and our church community has supported our adoptions.

We have been blessed twice by the gift of adoption and are thrilled to be on another adoption journey, eagerly anticipating the joy of welcoming another child into our home and hearts.

Achelle stays home with our kids and also homeschools them—she does an amazing job at caring for our children and pours into them daily.

Achelle is my closest friend and life simply wouldn't be the same without her. Achelle is kind, loving, and thoughtful. She is a devoted wife and mother, nurturing our family not only with love, but with a ton of delicious meals! Achelle is a highly motivated person and works hard in all she does. Her selflessness and love for our family are truly remarkable.

She enjoys music and plays drums and percussion and regularly plays drums on our church worship team, which is so fun to watch! In her free time, she loves running, making food, being outdoors and spending time with family and friends.

THE BOYS

Micah is an incredible husband, father, and person. He is hardworking, fun loving, and has the ability to stay calm, even in the stresses of life. His sense of humor brings laughter to our days, reminding us not to take life, or ourselves, too seriously. He is a natural leader and is fun to be around. He is hands-on with our kids, nurturing their imaginations through play. He is such a fun dad! He loves sports and played basketball, soccer, and baseball while growing up. It's fun to see him play sports with our kids and coach their soccer teams too. He loves being outdoors, practicing photography, and spending time with his family.

As a Business Analyst at a family friendly company, Micah is able to put his family first. He is a very involved dad and our kids love him deeply!

SNOW DAY FUN!

our HOME

We love our home, community, and living in the Midwest! We live in a four bedroom home that offers both indoor and outdoor space to play in. Our home is our happy place and what we love most about it is who we get to share it with and the cherished memories we've created in it. It's often loud and crazy and we wouldn't have it any other way!

We love to visit our local parks, swim in the nearby creek, and ride bikes through our neighborhood. One of the things we love most about living in the Midwest is experiencing all four seasons. In the Spring and Summer seasons we enjoy visiting our splash pad, community pool, and parks. We also love traveling around Wisconsin in our pop-up camper. In the Fall and Winter we love hiking in the fall colors, raking leaf piles in our yard, and tubing behind the four wheeler at Papa and Nana's farm.

POPSICLES AFTER A BIKE RIDE!

Jackson is our oldest and our biological child. He turned 8 in February 2026. He is all about tractors, semis, and Legos! He is a protective and nurturing big brother and it's fun to watch him interact with his siblings. Jackson has a tender heart and is always looking out for the needs of others.

Nicknames: Snack Pack, Baby J

Jeremiah turned 4 in June 2025. Our lives changed forever when we found out Jeremiah's birth mom had chosen us! He is outgoing, full of endless energy, and always up for an adventure. His big smile and big personality always light up any room he walks into. Jackson and Jeremiah share a very special brotherly bond and it is clear that they were meant to be brothers.

Nicknames: GG, Turbo

Sofia turned 4 in November 2025 and also came into our family through adoption. She came into our family without warning when we got a call that not only had we been chosen by her birth mom, but that she was already born and waiting for us! Just like her entrance into our family, she is a whirlwind of energy, spunk, and sassiness. She is one tough cookie with two older brothers and keeps up with whatever they are doing, never wanting to miss out on the action!

MICAH'S FAMILY

OUR FAMILY

Micah comes from a big, close-knit family with many relatives living in our town. Micah's family is full of laughter and affection, and we cherish our many family gatherings. We are blessed that Micah's parents, lovingly known as Papa and Nana by our kids, live just down the road on their family farm. We visit their farm often where the kids enjoy outdoor play with cousins and many tractor rides. Micah's family has embraced our adoption journey with support, showing love for each of our children equally. Adoption is rooted in Micah's family, with several relatives having chosen to adopt.

Achelle's family is spread across the United States. Though we don't get to see each other frequently, Holiday gatherings are always filled with joy as we catch up and enjoy spending time together. Achelle's parents, affectionately called Grandpa and Grandma by our kids, live about an hour away. They play an active role in our kid's lives, often attending their soccer games, visiting for a fun Saturday together, or by taking the kids for a weekend sleepover at their house. Achelle's family wholeheartedly supports our adoption journey and loves each of our children unconditionally.

FAMILY TRADITIONS

We have pizza with Micah's family nearly every Friday night, a tradition we call "Pizza Friday." It's a relaxed time for us to hang out as a family and watch the cousins play together for the evening.

OUR TRADITION OF CHRISTMAS MORNING CINNAMON ROLLS!

MATCHING PJS ARE ALWAYS A CHRISTMAS TRADITION

Christmas is hands down our favorite holiday. As a family, we decorate our tree together while eating snacks and popcorn. Once our tree is finished, we snuggle up together to watch "Frosty the Snowman". On Christmas morning we enjoy our yearly tradition of homemade cinnamon rolls and read the Christmas story together. Opening presents as a family is a joy and is followed by a day of fun and relaxation together.

our DOG, MANNY

Manny is our lovable Goldendoodle. Even though he is 70lbs, he thinks he is a lap dog! He is incredibly cuddly and full of energy, practically one of the kids. Manny loves hanging out in the backyard, chasing after the kids, and going on our daily family walks. He brings our family a lot of joy and love!

THOUGHTS ON PARENTING

We cherish our children as precious gifts from God and believe that they are each created with a unique purpose for their lives. Our ultimate goal as parents is to help our children grow up into people who love God and love others. This begins with the love and respect we show them at home. We strive to create a nurturing home where our children feel safe, loved, and valued. We desire to give our children everything they need to thrive and grow into who God created them to be. Family is everything to us and is the biggest focus of our lives. We believe that parenting is about connecting with our children on a daily basis, guiding and correcting them in areas where they need help, and supporting their natural strengths and God given abilities.

ENJOYING A WEEKEND AT CHURCH FAMILY CAMP

ON DIVERSITY and OPEN ADOPTION

We are a transracial family through adoption. We recognize the importance of teaching our children their heritage and are committed to making that a priority in our home and family.

We love that God created so much diversity and beauty in the world that we get to celebrate and learn from. Our family and friends wholeheartedly embrace all of our children regardless their heritage or how they came to be in our family, treating them with equal love.

We tell our children their adoption story from day one, always speaking of their first families with love and respect. Their story will always be made known to them at age appropriate levels. Adoption is a normal part of our everyday conversations. We leave the door open for our children to ask questions and express their feelings.

We honor whatever level of contact our child's birth family desires. We do yearly visits with Jeremiah's birth family in Florida and maintain regular picture and update exchanges. Sofia's birth family has our contact information and can reach out to us or our adoption agency whenever they wish. We believe adoption is a lifelong journey and are dedicated to ongoing training, education, and connecting with other adoptive families.
